

Wherever you go,
you'll be in a place
where we change
electricity into smart energy.

Schneider Electric,
the world leader
in the management
of electricity and
automation, is committed to converting electricity into smart energy that
powers how we work,
live and play.
Developing technologies,
processes and solutions
that are so simple,
efficient and
environmentally friendly, you forget they're even there. And making
tomorrow's world a better place to be.
Welcome to a new electric world.
